2) The reason given for the change is that many of the officials may get promotions (5 & over 10) only after 45 years of age & thus poor men are precluded from the benefit of insurance

3) It is very doubtful whether the premia rate after 45 will allow any margin for earning a decent bonus at 5% on the Salaries of Rs 10 & upwards. Apparently it is not worth while considering.

4) Reply of Govt — will be referred to the Insurance Committee.

Draft 26/6. 5) Refer Mr Lee D.C. for favour of opinion.

SUBJECT No. 169.

Age limit for the State Life Insurance.

Mr. B. Alasingra Char, Hassan taluk.

Summary of discussion.—Under the existing rules of the Mysore State Life Insurance, officers and officials cannot insure their lives after attaining 45 years of age. As many of the poor officials may get promotions after that age, they are precluded from the benefit of the first or further insurance. In order to obviate this difficulty, it is prayed that the age limit may kindly be raised to 50 years.

Reply of Government.—Will be referred to the Insurance Committee.
